

INTERMEDIATE CNC MACHINING

Cost:

£300

Level:

N/A

Duration:

Over five 2.5 hour sessions (6:00-8:00pm)

Entry requirements:

Experience of CNC or conventional machining

Overview:

Programme and operate a multiaxis machine tool. Including the manufacture of component with multiple features.

- 3 axis machining
- 3+2 axis machining
- Simultaneous machining
- Multiaxis machining applications
- Tool library & offset page
- Load tools into library, carousel and measure(laser)
- Set a WPC datum (Probe)
- Program creation (3 axis)

Who is it for?

People who have experience of manufacturing using conventional or CNC machine tools who would benefit from multi axis experience.

Aim:

Up Skilling current Engineers.

Where Can I Study?

AMAC Centre, Training 2000, Blackburn.

Method of delivery?

At the machine tool.

Date last updated: 06/04/2017