

PART L ENERGY EFFICIENCY (HEATING & HOT WATER)

Cost:

£150 + VAT

Duration:

1 day

Entry requirements:

Minimum of Level 2 NVQ or City & Guilds
Plumbing Qualification.

Overview:

Covering the CHESSE Guide, whole house boiler sizing, domestic gas, domestic oil and all current Part L building regulations.

Assessments:

Multiple choice test papers.

Who is it for?

Plumbing & Heating & Gas Engineers.

Aim:

Understand energy consumption, how energy efficiency affects the roles of heating engineers, prepare for changes within the industry.

Where Can I Study?

Training 2000 Construction Centre, Blackburn

Method of delivery?

Theory PowerPoint Presentation & Test.

Objectives

You will be able to: – understand current building legislation – comply with Part L building regulations (England & Wales) – promote energy efficiency boilers hot water storage and controls – understanding of the government commitments towards energy efficiency.

Date last updated: 29/08/2014

