

UNDER FLOOR HEATING SYSTEMS

Cost:

£295 +VAT

Duration:

2 days

Entry requirements:

Hold a level 3 NVQ or City & Guilds Plumbing Certificate. Have 5 yrs experience working in the heating industry.

Overview:

This course covers 5 modules:

- Floor constructions
- Systems
- Components
- Installation Requirements
- Commissioning

Assessments:

Multiple choice test papers.

Who is it for?

Plumbers, Heating Engineers & Operatives who wish to install Underfloor warm water heating installations.

Aim:

Understand the installation requirements. Explain the principles of warm water heating systems. State the types & advantages of UFH systems incorporating all the correct components & specifications.

Where Can I Study?

Training 2000 Construction Centre, Blackburn

Method of delivery?

PowerPoint Presentation.

Objectives

Be able to explain the basic principles of under floor heating systems. Describe the general installations and testing requirements. Demonstrate and understand the specific products. Understand the post installation requirements.

Date last updated: 01/09/2014

