

WATER REGULATIONS 1999

Cost:

£140.00 + VAT per person (includes training manual)

Duration:

1 Day (approx 8.30am – 4.30pm)

Entry requirements:

> BPEC water regulations advisory scheme certification (WRAS).

> A must have qualification to gain large contracts within the industry.

> Level 2 NVQ or City & Guilds in Plumbing.

> Minimum 3 years work experience in the industry.

Next Course Date

14/07/2016

Overview:

This course will cover:

- Legislation
- Regulations materials design commissioning back flow
- Hot and cold water services sanitary appliances.

Assessments:

Multiple choice test papers open book and closed book.

Who is it for?

Plumbers Utility Services & Maintenance Contractors.

Aim:

Understand what regulations mean, comply with regulations, aware of legislations and bring all candidates up to a standard.

Where Can I Study?

This course is delivered at our Stanley Road, Blackpool site.

Method of delivery?

½ day training ½ day assessment.

Objectives

Complete & improve competence in Water Regulations. On completion all installers will be able to apply to enter the Approved Contractors list, thus allowing you to self-certify your work, reducing the need for Water Inspectors.

Any other useful Information:

Training manual sent out 3-4 weeks prior to course. On successful completion candidates can join the Wras Approved Plumbing scheme.

Discounts taken on group bookings for over 5 people

e-mail gary.downes@t2000.co.uk or contact us on the number below asking to speak to a member of staff in the Construction Centre.

Dates upon request.

Date last updated: 01/09/2014

